Volume 37 January 11, 2026 Number 2

Sunday after Epiphany: Today we commemorate the Afterfeast of the Theophany of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, Our Righteous Father Theodosius the Cenobiarch, and Nikephoros the New Martyr of Crete, Vitalis of Gaza.

Prayer Corner: Your prayers are requested for God's protection and mercy on those who have asked us to pray for them, our Parish Shut-ins, the Armed Forces, those in Prison, those who have lost a loved one, who are ill, suffering or are in need, the leaders of our Church and country, and for mission ministries. We also continue to pray for those who have suffered great loss and tragedy throughout our world; especially those in Ukraine, Russia, Israel and Palestine. May we have peace in the world!

Welcome All Saints Guests! We welcome all our guests to All Saints Church today, whether as visitors from out of town, family members joining others here for worship today, or even soon-to-be members here for the first time. No matter what the reason the Holy Spirit brought you here today, we welcome you with open arms and hearts filled with the love of Christ. Please help us welcome you by letting our greeters or clergy know you are here! Following Divine Liturgy, we invite you to join us in the Social Hall, located directly below the church for Fellowship Coffee Hour.

Apolytikion/Hymn of All Saints: Your church having adorned herself, with the blood of all your martyrs in the world, as with the finest linen and purple robe, through them cries out to you "Oh Christ our God." Send down your compassion upon your people. Grant peace to your commonwealth, and to our souls your great mercy.

Today's Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Hebrews 13:7-16

Brethren, remember your leaders, those who spoke to you the word of God; consider the outcome of their lives, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. Do not be led away by diverse and strange teachings; for it is well that the heart be strengthened by grace, not by foods, which have not benefited their adherents. We have an altar from which those who serve the tent have no right to eat. For the bodies of those animals whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest as a sacrifice for sin are burned outside the camp. So Jesus also suffered outside the gate in order to sanctify the people through his own blood. Therefore let us go forth to him outside the camp and bear the abuse he endured. For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city which is to come. Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Today's Gospel Reading

The Gospel According to Matthew 4:12-17

At that time, when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew into Galilee; and leaving Nazareth he went and dwelt in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, that what was spoken by the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled: "The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles, the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned." From that time Jesus began to preach, saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand."

WE WELCOME THOSE WHO ARE VISITING TODAY

It's our joy to share today's Worship with you! Holy Communion is the supreme Sacrament of our Faith and is only for Baptized and/or Chrismated Orthodox Christians who are in Good Standing and have spiritually prepared, in prayer and fasting, to receive. Non-Orthodox guests are welcome to receive the Blessed Bread offered at the end of the Liturgy.

PATRON SAINT

Education

— DAY AT ALL SAINTS —

PATRON SAINT DAY

WHAT IT IS & HOW YOU CAN HELP

The church school children will be choosing a Saint to research, learn and write about, then educate the parish. You help by actively listening and engaging with the children.

CHURCH SCHOOL

LESSONS & ACTIVITIES

Sunday school lessons will have age appropriate, Saint focused activities for the children, as well as an opportunity to help put their "presentation" together.

DIVINE LITURGY

ALL SAINTS PARADE

The children will be dressing as their chosen saint. The children will parade through the church following Divine Liturgy so that they can show off their outfits.

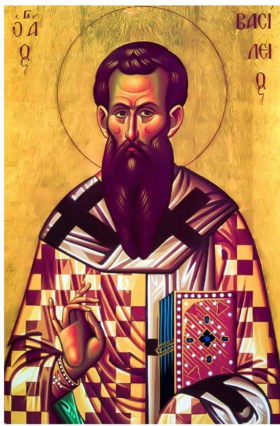

PRESENTATION

The children will educate parishioners with facts and history that they learned about their Saint.

Stellanie and the Loutsion family would like to thank our church friends and family for their unwavering support throughout her basketball career. This past Wednesday at Bethany, West Virginia, Stellanie surpassed the 1,000 career-point milestone. She is the 22nd W&J women's basketball player to reach this achievement in school history. Currently, her overall record to date in her fourth season is 79–15. She was also a part of the 2025 PAC Women's Basketball Championship team.
