Volume 37 February 15, 2026 Number 7

Judgement (Meatfare) Sunday: Onesimus the Apostle of the 70, Our Righteous Father Anthimus the Elder of Chios, Onesimos, Patriarch of Constantinople, Eusebius the Righteous of Syria and Major the Martyr.

Prayer Corner: Your prayers are requested for God's protection and mercy on those who have asked us to pray for them, our Parish Shut-ins, the Armed Forces, those in Prison, those who have lost a loved one, who are ill, suffering or are in need, the leaders of our Church and country, and for mission ministries. We also continue to pray for those who have suffered great loss and tragedy throughout our world; especially those in Ukraine, Russia, Israel and Palestine. May we have peace in the world!

Welcome All Saints Guests! We welcome all our guests to All Saints Church today, whether as visitors from out of town, family members joining others here for worship today, or even soon-to-be members here for the first time. No matter what the reason the Holy Spirit brought you here today, we welcome you with open arms and hearts filled with the love of Christ. Please help us welcome you by letting our greeters or clergy know you are here! Following Divine Liturgy, we invite you to join us in the Social Hall, located directly below the church for Fellowship Coffee Hour.

Apolytikion/Hymn of All Saints: Your church having adorned herself, with the blood of all your martyrs in the world, as with the finest linen and purple robe, through them cries out to you "Oh Christ our God." Send down your compassion upon your people. Grant peace to your commonwealth, and to our souls your great mercy.

Today's Epistle Reading

St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians 8:8-13; 9:1-2

Brethren, food will not commend us to God. We are no worse off if we do not eat, and no better off if we do. Only take care lest this liberty of yours somehow become a stumbling block to the weak. For if any one sees you, a man of knowledge, at table in an idol's temple, might he not be encouraged, if his conscience is weak, to eat food offered to idols? And so by your knowledge this weak man is destroyed, the brother for whom Christ died. Thus, sinning against your brethren and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if food is a cause of my brother's falling, I will never eat meat, lest I cause my brother to fall.

Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Have I not seen Jesus our Lord? Are not you my workmanship in the Lord? If to others I am not an apostle, at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.

Today's Gospel Reading

The Gospel According to Matthew 25:31-46

The Lord said, "When the Son of man comes in his glory and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne. Before him will be gathered all the nations, and he will separate them one from another as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and he will place the sheep at his right hand, but the goats at the left. Then the king will say to those at his right hand, 'Come, O blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; for I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, I was a stranger and you welcomed me, I was naked and you clothed me, I was sick and you visited me, I was in prison and you came to me.' Then the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you drink? And when did we see you a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? And when did we see you sick or in prison and visit you?' And the King will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brethren, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those at his left hand, 'Depart from me, you cursed, into the eternal fire prepared for the devil and his angels; for I was hungry and you gave me no food, I was thirsty and you gave me no drink, I was a stranger and you did not welcome me, naked and you did not clothe me, sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' Then they also will answer, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not minister to you?' Then he will answer them, 'Truly, I say to you, as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me.' And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

WE WELCOME THOSE WHO ARE VISITING TODAY

It's our joy to share today's Worship with you! Holy Communion is the supreme Sacrament of our Faith and is only for Baptized and/or Chrismated Orthodox Christians who are in Good Standing and have spiritually prepared, in prayer and fasting, to receive.

Non-Orthodox guests are welcome to receive the Blessed Bread offered at the end of the Liturgy. Afterward, come join us in the Hall for a cup of coffee and some wholesome fellowship!

2026 Stewardship Reminder: As we continue our 2026 Stewardship Campaign, we thank all who have already submitted their pledge. If you have not yet completed your stewardship card, we kindly ask you to do so as soon as possible to help our parish plan for the coming year. This year, we are prayerfully encouraging families to consider the 2% of annual income stewardship challenge as a meaningful expression of our Orthodox way of life. For those who give online, we also ask you to review your current recurring contribution and consider whether an increase is possible, as many online gifts have remained unchanged for several years. If you need assistance with online giving, please call the office at 724-745-5205.

Stewardship is not just about sustaining our parish—it is about offering back to God with gratitude and faith. Thank you for your continued love and support of our Church.

Leaving a Legacy of Faith at All Saints Greek Orthodox Church

Planned giving is a thoughtful way to support the ministries and future of All Saints Greek Orthodox Church while also reflecting your faith, values, and stewardship. The following options allow parishioners to make a lasting gift—often with significant personal and tax benefits.

Bequests in a Will or Trust

A bequest is one of the simplest and most meaningful ways to make a planned gift. By including All Saints Greek Orthodox Church in your will or living trust, you can designate a specific dollar amount, a percentage of your estate, or the remainder after other gifts are fulfilled. Bequests can be updated at any time and do not affect your finances during your lifetime.

Beneficiary Designations

You may name All Saints as a beneficiary of certain financial accounts, such as: - Bank or brokerage accounts (Payable on Death / Transfer on Death) - Retirement accounts (IRA, 401(k), 403(b))

This is often as simple as completing a beneficiary form with your financial institution and can be revised if your circumstances change.

Retirement Account Gifts

Retirement assets are often heavily taxed when passed to heirs, but gifts to the Church may avoid these taxes. Naming All Saints as a full or partial beneficiary of a retirement account can be a tax-efficient way to support the Church's mission.

Life Insurance Gifts

You may choose to name All Saints Greek Orthodox Church as the beneficiary of an existing life insurance policy or donate a paid-up policy you no longer need. This allows you to make a meaningful future gift at a relatively modest cost.

Gifts of Appreciated Assets

Donating appreciated securities (such as stocks or mutual funds held for more than one year) may allow you to avoid capital gains tax while receiving a charitable deduction for the full market value of the gift. These gifts can support both current ministries or long-term needs.

Memorial or Legacy Gifts

Planned gifts may also be designated in memory of a loved one or as a legacy of faith for future generations. These gifts serve as a lasting witness to one's commitment to Christ and His Church.

A Prayerful Act of Stewardship

Planned giving is not about the size of the gift, but the intention behind it. It is an opportunity to give thanks to God for His blessings and to ensure that All Saints Greek Orthodox Church continues to serve, worship, and grow for generations to come.

For confidential information or assistance, parishioners are encouraged to contact the Church office (724-745-5205) or speak with their financial or legal advisor.
