Volume 37 April 5, 2026 Number 14

Palm Sunday: Today we commemorate Monk-Martyrs Claudius, Diodore, Victor, Victorinus, Pappias, Nicophorus, and Serapion, Theodora the Righteous of Thessaloniki, Agathopodes and Theodulos the Martyrs and George the new Martyr.

Prayer Corner: Your prayers are requested for God's protection and mercy on those who have asked us to pray for them, our Parish Shut-ins, the Armed Forces, those in Prison, those who have lost a loved one, who are ill, suffering or are in need, the leaders of our Church and country, and for mission ministries. We also continue to pray for those who have suffered great loss and tragedy throughout our world; especially those in Ukraine, Russia, Israel and Palestine. May we have peace in the world!

Welcome All Saints Guests! We welcome all our guests to All Saints Church today, whether as visitors from out of town, family members joining others here for worship today, or even soon-to-be members here for the first time. No matter what the reason the Holy Spirit brought you here today, we welcome you with open arms and hearts filled with the love of Christ. Please help us welcome you by letting our greeters or clergy know you are here! Following Divine Liturgy, we invite you to join us in the Social Hall, located directly below the church for Fellowship Coffee Hour.

Apolytikion/Hymn of All Saints: Your church having adorned herself, with the blood of all your martyrs in the world, as with the finest linen and purple robe, through them cries out to you "Oh Christ our God." Send down your compassion upon your people. Grant peace to your commonwealth, and to our souls your great mercy.

Today's Epistle Reading

St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians 4:4-9

BRETHREN, rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let all men know your forbearance. The Lord is at hand. Have no anxiety about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. What you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, do; and the God of peace will be with you.

Today's Gospel Reading

The Gospel According to John 12:1-18

Six days before Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazaros was, whom Jesus had raised from the dead. There they made him a supper; Martha served, and Lazaros was one of those at table with him. Mary took a pound of costly ointment of pure nard and anointed the feet of Jesus and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. But Judas Iscariot, one of his disciples (he who was to betray him), said "Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii and given to the poor?" This he said, not that he cared for the poor but because he was a thief, and as he had the money box he used to take what was put into it. Jesus said, "Let her alone, let her keep it for the day of my burial. The poor you always have with you, but you do not always have me."

When the great crowd of the Jews learned that he was there, they came, not only on account of Jesus but also to see Lazaros, whom he had raised from the dead. So the chief priests planned to put Lazaros also to death, because on account of him many of the Jews were going away and believing in Jesus.

The next day a great crowd who had come to the feast heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem. So they took branches of palm trees and went out to meet him, crying, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, even the King of Israel!" And Jesus found a young donkey and sat upon it; as it is written, "Fear not, daughter of Zion; behold, your king is coming, sitting on a donkey's colt!" His disciples did not understand this at first; but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that this had been written of him and had been done to him. The crowd that had been with him when he called Lazaros out of the tomb and raised him from the dead bore witness. The reason why the crowd went to meet him was that they heard he had done this sign.

WE WELCOME THOSE WHO ARE VISITING TODAY

It's our joy to share today's Worship with you! Holy Communion is the supreme Sacrament of our Faith and is only for Baptized and/or Chrismated Orthodox Christians who are in Good Standing and have spiritually prepared, in prayer and fasting, to receive. Non-Orthodox guests are welcome to receive the Blessed Bread offered at the end of the Liturgy. Afterward, come join us in the Hall for a cup of coffee and some wholesome fellowship!

2026 Stewardship Reminder: If you have not yet completed your stewardship card, we kindly ask you to do so as soon as possible to help our parish plan for the coming year. This year, we are prayerfully encouraging families to consider the 2% of annual income stewardship challenge as a meaningful expression of our Orthodox way of life. For those who give online, we also ask you to review your current recurring contribution and consider whether an increase is possible, as many online gifts have remained unchanged for several years. If you need assistance with online giving, please call the office at 724-745-5205.

The AHEPA National and District #4 Scholarship Applications are now available in the church office, or you can contact Steve Lemonakis for more information stevelemonakis@yahoo.com phone: 724-344-3738.

“Critical Conversations for Parents and Children” Presentation on May 2, 2026

Raising your children in the Christian faith is becoming more and more challenging every day, isn't it? Each child has his or her own needs, of course, and parents are uniquely qualified to address them. To assist them, Matt Riley and his colleagues at BeBroken Ministries have identified “Critical Conversations” that parents can have with their children at various stages in their development.

Matt Riley will be coming to St. John the Baptist Church in Canonsburg \(601 Boone Avenue, Canonsburg, PA\) on May 2, 2026 to talk about these “Critical Conversations,” especially those about emotions, identity, and trust, with children as young as 5, and going on into adolescence. We are would like to make this program as accessible as possible for parents of young children, so we are providing child care and a meal for all those who want it.

Our evening will begin with Vespers at 5:00 p.m., for those who can make it, and afterwards, a light supper will be served. Children can go first in line, and they can eat together in a nearby classroom. Matt will begin his presentation in the church hall as soon as the other attendees have picked up their food, and the evening's activities should be over by about 7:30 p.m.

Please mark your calendar! We feel that these issues deserve our earnest attention, and we hope that you will join us for this presentation.

If you plan to come, or if you have any questions, please email Deacon John Thompson at johntlibrarian@gmail.com to let him know how many people will be eating supper and what are the ages of your children who will need child care.
